Internship Questionnaire

Impacting the world with Christian Literature

What is My Fit in CLC?

A personal inventory as you prayerfully consider internship service in the Kingdom through CLC Ministries International.

Our Mission:

To make evangelical Christian literature available to all nations, so that people may come to faith and maturity in the Lord Jesus Christ.

CLC members come from many different national, ethnic and denominational backgrounds. Our common beliefs and an ability to work with one another are what keep us moving together toward our common goal.

What CLC Believes...

The divine inspiration and consequent authority of the whole canonical Scriptures.

The doctrine of the Trinity.

The deity and humanity of the Lord Jesus Christ and His substitutional and atoning death on the cross.

The fall of man, his consequent and universal sinfulness and guilt, and his need of regeneration and redemption.

The doctrine of justification by grace.

The present work of the Holy Spirit, by whose indwelling the Christian can live a godly life.

The resurrection of the body, both in the case of the just and the unjust.

The eternal life of the saved and the eternal punishment of the lost.

The spiritual unity of believers, who form the universal church, of which Christ is the Head.

Questions to ask yourself...

“CLCers” are not perfect people, nor are we able to enlist the help of perfect people (there is no such person). But we do want our team members to see their gifts being optimally used while meeting the goals of CLC. If you can answer “Yes” to most of the following questions, we believe that you can have a meaningful mission experience with us. You may want to discuss these with your pastor, church elder, missions committee, or someone else who knows you well.

- Am I a Christian who has a growing relationship with the Lord?
- Am I able to use and apply God’s Word?
- Am I actively involved in a local church?
- Does my behavior reflect my commitment to sexual purity and personal holiness?
- Do I agree with What CLC Believes?
- Can I work in harmony with those who differ from me on points of doctrine or practices not covered by What CLC Believes, and not place undue emphasis on such?

9. Personal Doctrinal Beliefs and Practice

As a Christian literature organization, it is important that our members know what they believe and be in agreement with the mission on key doctrines. It is equally important that individuals' doctrinal beliefs are reflected in the way they live their lives. For each of the following topics we would like to know what you believe and how that belief impacts your life and relationships.

1. God. What is your understanding of the nature of God and the Trinity – the relationship between the three Persons?

What do you believe about the deity of Christ?

Explain your understanding of the nature of the Holy Spirit. How do these beliefs affect your relationship with God?

2. Scripture. What do you believe about the inspiration, inerrancy and authority of the Scriptures? What does Scripture mean to you personally and how does it affect your choices and relationships?

3. Salvation. How can people enter into a right relationship with God?

Are there other ways besides what you have described?

What will happen to those who die without ever hearing about Christ?

How does your belief about salvation impact the way you live and relate to others, including your motivation for ministry?

4. Holy Spirit. What does it mean to be indwelt by the Holy Spirit?

To be filled with the Holy Spirit?

How do you walk in the Spirit and what impact does that have on your life?

How can you tell when you are and are not walking in the Spirit?

What do you believe about spiritual gifts?
