

What Is My Fit in CLC?

A personal inventory as you prayerfully consider service in the Kingdom through CLC Ministries International.

Our Mission:

To make evangelical Christian literature available to all nations, so that people may come to faith and maturity in the Lord Jesus Christ.

CLC members come from many different national, ethnic and denominational backgrounds. Our common beliefs and an ability to work with one another are what keep us moving together toward our common goal.

What CLC believes. . .

The divine inspiration and consequent authority of the whole canonical Scriptures

The doctrine of the Trinity

The fall of man, his consequent moral depravity and his need of regeneration

The atonement through the substitutionary death of Christ

The doctrine of justification by faith

The resurrection of the body, both in the case of the just and of the unjust

The eternal life of the saved and the eternal punishment of the lost

The spiritual unity of believers, who form the universal church, of which Christ is the Head

Questions to ask yourself. . .

“CLCers” are not perfect people, nor are we able to enlist the help of perfect people (there is no such person). But we do want our team members to see their gifts being optimally used while meeting the goals of CLC. If you can answer “Yes” to most of the following questions, we believe that you can have a meaningful mission experience with us. You may want to discuss these with your pastor, church elder, missions committee, or someone else who knows you well.

Spiritual

- Am I a Christian who has a growing relationship with the Lord?
- Am I able to use and apply God’s Word?
- Am I actively involved in a local church?
- Does my behavior reflect my commitment to sexual purity and personal holiness?
- Do I agree with “What CLC Believes”
- Can I work in harmony with those who differ from me on points of doctrine or practices not covered by What CLC Believes, and not place undue emphasis on such?

Family

- If single, am I comfortable with the idea of mission involvement as a single person?
- If married, do I have a healthy and satisfying marriage?
- If a parent, do I have a positive, healthy relationship with my children?

Skills

- Do I have a skill that could be used in CLC or am I interested in being trained for literature distribution?
- Have I had successful work experience?
- Do I feel I could learn to train others?

Finances

- Are my finances in good order?
- Can I trust God to provide for my financial needs through churches and friends?

Physical Health

- Do I have a level of health that enables me to function normally, even in areas of the world where healthcare is not at the level I now experience?

Emotional Health

- Do I think I could be resilient and adapt well to areas of the world that are dangerous, stressful and full of changes?
- Cross-cultural living brings discouragement as well as joy. Could I maintain a positive outlook on life?
- Am I able to be flexible?

Relationships

- Is my church supportive of my desire to work with CLC?
- Do I have the ability to form friendships?
- Would co-workers say that they enjoy working with me?
- Am I a team player?
- Can I willingly follow leadership and supervision?
